At the beginning of the summer, we will meet as a group to discuss rules and expectations for the program. However, the following rules are non-negotiable for all DCS programs:

- Swearing, insulting, stealing or fighting of any kind will not be tolerated.
- All children must show respect for the other children, their counselors, parents, and other people at the program and on field trips.
- Children must wear helmets when using their bikes and rollerblades.
- Children are required to check in and out each day.

Parents who allow their children to come and go at will must sign a release form at the beginning of the summer. Parents should discuss boundaries with their children and let the playground counselors know. It is each child's responsibility to inform their counselor if they are leaving the premises.

Please discuss these rules with your child. Be aware that if your child does not follow these rules, he/she may not be allowed back to the program for a period of time to be determined by the counselors. If the problems are persistent and are disruptive to the program, you may be asked to withdraw your child from the program without a refund.
